Put Beginning Readers on the Right Track with ALL ABOARD READING™

The All Aboard Reading series is especially designed for beginning readers. Written by noted authors and illustrated in full color, these are books that children really want to read—books to excite their imagination, expand their interests, make them laugh, and support their feelings. With fiction and nonfiction stories that are high interest and curriculum-related, All Aboard Reading books offer something for every young reader. And with four different reading levels, the All Aboard Reading series lets you choose which books are most appropriate for your children and their growing abilities.

Picture Readers
Picture Readers have super-simple texts, with many nouns appearing as rebus pictures. At the end of each book are 24 flash cards—on one side is a rebus picture; on the other side is the written-out word.

Station Stop 1
Station Stop 1 books are best for children who have just begun to read. Simple words and big type make these early reading experiences more comfortable. Picture clues help children to figure out the words on the page. Lots of repetition throughout the text helps children to predict the next word or phrase—an essential step in developing word recognition.

Station Stop 2
Station Stop 2 books are written specifically for children who are reading with help. Short sentences make it easier for early readers to understand what they are reading. Simple plots and simple dialogue help children with reading comprehension.

Station Stop 3
Station Stop 3 books are perfect for children who are reading alone. With longer text and harder words, these books appeal to children who have mastered basic reading skills. More complex stories captivate children who are ready for more challenging books.

In addition to All Aboard Reading books, look for All Aboard Math Readers™ (fiction stories that teach math concepts children are learning in school); All Aboard Science Readers™ (nonfiction books that explore the most fascinating science topics in age-appropriate language); All Aboard Poetry Readers™ (funny, rhyming poems for readers of all levels); and All Aboard Mystery Readers™ (puzzling tales where children piece together evidence with the characters).

All Aboard for happy reading!

We Love You, Strawberry Shortcake!

By Sierra Harimann
Illustrated by Marci Beighley

Grosset & Dunlap
An Imprint of Penguin Group (USA) Inc.

Strawberry Shortcake
is a berry sweet girl.

She likes to show
her friends how much
she cares about them.

Strawberry's friends like
to show they care, too.

Plum Pudding has an idea.
Everyone can give Strawberry a gift.

Raspberry Torte wants to throw Strawberry a surprise party.

Both ideas are good.
The girls will have a party
and bring gifts!

Plum and Raspberry
know what to give Strawberry.
So do Lemon Meringue and Blueberry Muffin.

Orange Blossom does not know what to give Strawberry. But then she gets an idea!

Strawberry's friends set up for the party.
It will be berry fun!

It is almost party time.
Blueberry calls Strawberry.

She asks Strawberry
to come to the bookstore.
Strawberry says she will come right away.

Strawberry opens the door.
What a surprise!

Lemon pours lemonade.
Raspberry serves fruit salad.

Plum is the first to give Strawberry a gift.

It is a dance lesson!

Next, Blueberry gives her gift to Strawberry.

It is a book for Strawberry's recipes.

One Haircut

Then, Lemon gives her gift to Strawberry.
It is a haircut.

Next, Strawberry opens a box from Raspberry. Inside is a pretty, new dress!

We love You
berr

We Love You,
Strawberry!
One Dance Lesson

Orange feels very sad.
Her gift is not like the other gifts.

Orange tells Strawberry her gift was just going to be a hug.

Strawberry thinks a hug
is a perfect gift!

Strawberry says,
"Thank you."
She loves her party
and all her gifts.

But Strawberry loves her berry best friends even more!
